

Jinxiang: International Garlic Center Has Been Put Into Operation

Detail Introduction :

Recently, the International Garlic Center in Jinxiang County was completed and put into operation. The total construction area of the project is more than 30,000 square meters, of which the first floor has a construction area of about 13,000 square meters. The center is designed with "Garlic" as the design concept. The six halls are like six "garlic cloves". Seen from the air, the top shape is a garlic cross-section.

"There are three floors in the center. The first floor displays the achievements of Jinxiang's rural revitalization and development, and uses big data real-time analysis to grasp the garlic market dynamics; the second floor can carry out garlic product inspection and testing, scientific research and development, and vocational farmer training; the third floor is mainly used for hackerspace and administrative office." Introduced by Wang Jie, Director of the Jinxiang County Bureau of Commerce.

In front of a holographic projection cabinet, the holographic imaging system is vividly showing the growth and management process of garlic. Mr. Wang introduced that the Jinxiang Garlic Science Experience Hall uses physical display, simulation model display, multimedia display, and high-tech interactive experience to show the distribution and growth process of garlic, intensively processed products, medicinal value and literary value. A sales platform displays a variety of garlic products. Among them, black garlic is made from ordinary garlic after 90 days of special fermentation. It is rich in 18 kinds of amino acids that are beneficial to the human body and has very good health functions.

In the big data center, big data of garlic planting area, warehousing, export, market garlic, agricultural product quality and safety, and one-two-three product networking real-time monitoring can be clear at a glance. Sensors and geographic information technology can also be used to monitor planting bases to realize precision agricultural production and intelligent management.

China Garlic Price is reasonable and of high quality. China garlic suppliers operate in good faith. Garlic consumers can buy garlic at ease.
